

Ed Richfield – bio

Dr Ed Richfield is a consultant in Elderly medicine with a sub-specialty of movement disorders, working at North Bristol NHS Trust. He completed his medical degree at the University of Liverpool, and post-graduate training in the Yorkshire deanery. His PhD, from Hull-York Medical School, is titled "Palliative care in Parkinson's disease: developing a needs assessment tool". He has been involved in the Neurology Academy as a delegate and faculty member since 2014 and sits on the British Geriatric Society (BGS) movement disorder special interest group committee. He is a member of the International Movement disorders Society (MDS) taskforce exploring palliative care in Parkinson's disease and current chair of the International Neuropalliative Care Society (INPCS) clinical committee.

MBChB (hons), MRCP, PhD